

A Dream's a Dream

The Wood Brothers

You blow me off just like a tin roof
Keep on stormin' through my dreams
Twist me around leave me upside down
But I know better you'd never be so mean

A dream's a dream and I know better
A dream's a dream and I know better

I see you layin' on my sofa
All wrapped up in somebody's arms
I'm locked outside bangin' on the window all night
But I know better you'd never do me harm

A dream's a dream and I know better
A dream's a dream and I know better
A dream's a dream love me forever and ever
A dream's a dream and I know better

Been showin' up to work late tryin' to imagine how to get home safe cause I got no pants on Lookin' good in a seer sucker holding you close but I can't pucker ca use I got my teeth gone Cruising down the street sittin' in the back seat making out real swe et but nobody's drivin' Fore you know it I'm falling I'm floatin' I'm flyin' I'm laughing I'm crashing I'm dyin'
How do I know I'm not dead when I'm laying in the bed and I can't get my eyes open
I'm sweating I'm soakin' and I can't get woke all I do is get my hear t broken

You pass me by out on the highway
Some dark stranger at the wheel
Blow me a kiss knock me in the ditch
I know better but it felt so real

I know better
I know better
I know better
And I know better
I know better
A dream's a dream
And I know better
I know better

A dream's a dream and I know better
I know better
A dream's a dream and I know better
Better
