

Strange As It Seems

The Wood Brothers

Well it's lonely in here he said
Points to his heart and his head
Puts on his best suit and his shined up shoes
And he climbs into bed

In his pocket is the money he saved
He's got a real clean shave
Yeah he wants to look good tonight
And he turns out the light

It's not as strange as it seems
When you want to meet the girl of your dreams

Well it's crazy out there she said
Turns off the TV set
Puts on her prettiest dress and her high heeled shoes
And she climbs into bed

She's got on her make up
And her hair's all fixed up
Yeah she's a beautiful sight
And she turns out the light

It's not as strange as it seems
When you want to meet the man of your dreams

Well he opens up his blue eyes
Smells the coffee and the sunrise
Takes off his shoes and his suit and he walks downstairs
And he kisses his wife

Doesn't know if it's real
Well it feels like a dream feels
And it's a beautiful sight
And they dance in the light

It's not as strange as it seems
When you want to meet the girl of your dreams
