

Dragonhead

Throwing Muses

He lies, he lies, he lies, he lies, he lies
He lies, he lies, he lies, he lies, he lies

He lies, he lies, he lies, he lies, he lies
In your big red dragonhead
In your big red dragonhead

He lies, he lies, he lies, he lies, he lies
He lies, he lies, he lies, he lies, he lies
In your big red dragonhead
In your big red dragonhead

Don't go back to sleep
Stay up and watch the door with me
Watch me
Too much mascara runs when you sleep

He lies awake
Raising the creeps
Opens the door
I swallow creepy things

He lies in your big red dragonhead

Don't go back to sleep
Watch the door
Watch me
Too much mascara runs when you sleep

He lies awake
Raising the creeps
Opens the door

He lies awake
Raising the creeps
Opens the door
I swallow creepy things

He lies in your big red dragonhead
Your big red dragonhead
Your big black dragonhead

Go to bed
Don't go back to sleep
