

Costumes Of Technocracy

Thy Disease

Lies
Realise all their lies
Possess our lives
An eye for an eye
Wearing human skin
But hell within
Sadistic grin
At our suffering

How do we deal with lies
Costumed and disguised?
Right before my eyes, persecute our lives
Puritan disguise, control, demoralize
Manipulate our minds, false flag terrorized

Wearing the robes of technocracy
End to all meritocracy
The illusion of democracy
Is drowning in celebrity

Indoctrinate
Segregate
Desecrate
While they celebrate
Wired up to the state
Evil resonates
Premeditates
And detonates

Puritan disguise, control, demoralize
Manipulate our minds, false flag terrorized
How do we deal with lies
Costumed and disguised?
Right before my eyes, persecute our lives

Promising
Always promising
Promising
But no delivering Promising
Always promising
Promising
But never delivering

Wearing the robes of technocracy
End to all meritocracy
The illusion of democracy
Is drowning in celebrity

Fooled by costumes of technocracy
Teaching lies instead of honesty
Tragedy sold as fantasy
