

Just That Girl

Tiffany Darwish

Drivin' in this mornin
still half awake
I had to rush around like crazy and i'm still 30 minutes late

Sun comin up over my shoulder
And I look down and realise
I had a coffee stain on my favorite white shirt and Alice Cooper eyes

I'm just that girl who never seems to get it right
Some days I laugh about it, Some days it makes me cry
The good, the bad, the ugly...
All moments of my life
Beautiful disaster, welcome to my world
Lord, I'm just that girl...

Been waiting for the weekend
so I could go out with the girls
I got new heels, a sexy black dress and i'm ready for the world!

I finally get the chance to talk to the cutest guy in the place
When i slip and trip and my heel breaks and I fall on my face!
(chrous)

There's always things in life that we wish we could change
I'm just that girl who's learned to live with my mistakes
I know right where I stand and I don't give a damn!
This is who i am...
(chrorus)

Lord, I'm just that girl...
Y'know I'm just that girl...
I'm just that girl...
