

Shadowlight

Tiger Army

In the shadowlight
Fragments of the night
They are falling and I'm feeling something I can't explain
Dreams follow behind from where I've lain

Let's go out and moonbathe
Bats fly across our gaze
In the nighttime, in the summer – I felt so alive
Let's go to a place where dreams arrive

In the shadowlight
The joy of a noir life
Nothing matters but this right now, in this world insane
Hold my hand as the sky goes down in flame

In the shadowlight
In the shadowlight
Shadowlight
Shadowlight

Hold my hand as the sky goes down in flame
