Coming Up Close

'Til Tuesday

One night in Iowa He and I in a borrowed car Went driving in the summer Promises in every star

Out in the distance I could hear some people laughing I felt my heart beat back A weekend's worth of sadness

There was a farmhouse
That had long since been deserted
We stopped and carved our hearts
Into the wooden surface

We thought just for an instant We could see the future We thought for once we knew What really was important

Coming up close Everything sounds like welcome home Come home, and oh, by the way

Don't you know that I could make A dream that's barely half-awake come true

I wanted to say
But anything I could have said
I felt somehow that you already knew

We got back in the car And listened to a Dylan tape We drove around the fields Until it started getting late

And I went back to
My hotel room on the highway
And he just got back
In his car and drove away

Coming up close Everything sounds like welcome home Come home, and oh, by the way

Don't you know that I could make A dream that's barely half-awake come true

I wanted to say
But anything I could have said
I felt somehow that you already knew

Coming up close Everything sounds like welcome home Come home

Coming up close

Everything sounds like welcome home Come home, come on home
