

No One Is Watching You Now

'Til Tuesday

Same town as it's ever been
If there's changes somewhere
They've occurred from within
Streets pass and hold up to me
Every corner defined
By the places you'd be

But no one is watching you now
No one is watching you now
Like I did

Even the longest of days
You could make disappear
By the look on your face

We used to drive into town
And the eyes of the girls
Followed you all around

But no one is watching you now
I know no one is watching you now
Like I did

Forty-eight hours pass
And I'm longing to stay
Forty-eight hours pass
And watching you, watching you
Is ages away

Something has torn me apart
Oh but what do I care
About watching my heart
I know that sadness bleeds through
And my sadness for me
Is now sadness for you

'Cause no one is watching you now
I know no one is watching you now
Like I did
