

Outland

Today Is The Day

Its time I made myself a plan with this fist stone heart in hand my blade my eye die empty man it's you it's you not me you see black crow false bird die fly in shame uphold the truth don't die in vain my sword your lord I score your dead bleed bleed bleed stop breathing goodbye don't cry my hatred inside it's time to fly nowhere it's time to live the truth or die
