I'm gonna' ...

Walk like a man, and talk like a man.

Walk like a man, hey baby, you can call me your man.

A little girl asked me what am I gonna' do,

When I get old and blue and worn clear through?

And I say by that time I ought to be in my prime,

I'm gonna' strut like a cock until I'm ninety-nine.

I'm gonna'...

Sometimes I feel it's gettin' late.

In life -- all that settlin' down can wait,

'Till my routine days all seem the same.

Right now, I've got to get on out, I've got to make my day.
