

Faces And Places

Tom Paxton

There are places I have been
Faces I knew way back when
I loved them all
I loved them in their time
They are all my yesterdays
We smiled and went our separate ways
We all said, ciao
Of course, I miss them now

Oh faces and places
They all left indelible traces
On my soul
Wherever it's going
Faces and places
Spun my soul in gossamer laces
God knows how
I miss them now

Oh, I know the past is past
And the changes come so very fast
You blink your eye
Another day goes by
But your memory won't let go
And every day the feelings grow
You think you're strong
And then you hear one song

And faces and places
They all left indelible traces
On my soul
Wherever it's going
Faces and places
Spun my soul in gossamer laces
God knows how
I miss them now

Oh, faces and places
They all left indelible traces
On my soul
Wherever it's going
Faces and places
Spun my soul in gossamer laces
God knows how
I miss them now
