I shoulda known it I shoulda seen Leave it to you To treat me mean

Every promise was just a runaround I shoulda known it Yeah, you're gonna let me down Well it's over now, you see It's the last time you're gonna hurt me

I shoulda known it Hard to believe It was all right there In front of me

Sold down the river
Left for dead
Yeah, you're puttin' ideas
In another man's head
And it's over now, you see
It's the last time you're gonna hurt me

Thanks for nothin'
Yeah, thanks a lot
Go ahead baby
Take all I got
And it's over now, ya see

It's the last time you're gonna hurt me It's the last time you're gonna hurt me
