Lorelei
Maybe you like a little melody
It's not the words that move me

Lorelei, Lorelei Maybe you like a lullaby Now I can't remember why

Lorelei, Lorelei Intuation's leading us where I don't know yet

Lorelei, Lorelei Something's happening Hard to place it, hard to hide it

Lorelei, Lorelei
What is happening
I'm not sure, I guess you know it
Lorelei, Lorelei

Deep in the jungle of thought
There comes a clearing
And in the clearing, there is a pool

The pool is deep, the water cool This is the thought The thought is you

Lorelei, Lorelei Intuition's leading us where I don't know yet

Lorelei, Lorelei Something's happening Hard to place it, hard to hide it

Lorelei, Lorelei What is happening I'm not sure, I guess you know it

Lorelei, Lorelei Across the wasted plain Across the twisted dunes Beyond the colored lights The mountain looms

The air is thin, the door within The sea of light, the light is you

Lorelei, Lorelei, Lorelei Lorelei, Lorelei
