

Fallin'

Toni Braxton

I believe
You wouldn't just let me walk out the door for no reason
Forget what it seems like
Maybe we fight too much 'cause it's not our season

So I don't know why I keep fallin'
I keep fallin'
Ain't no use in me stallin'
When you're tellin' me
Every single feelin' I'm feelin' is wrong and
I keep fallin'
I don't say this too often
But this is how I really feel

I keep fallin' in love more and more every day
I keep fallin' love, fuckin' with you in this way
Guess that's the bottom line, ain't nothin' more I can say
I keep fallin' in love fallin' love

Could it be (Could it be)
Everything that I've been fightin' for ain't worth keepin'
And possibly (Possibly)
My ego won't let me realize I've been beaten
That's probably why I keep fallin' (Fallin', fallin')
I keep fallin' (Oh)
Ain't no use in me stallin' (No)
When you're tellin' me
Every single feelin' I'm feelin' is wrong (So very wrong)
I keep fallin'
I don't say this too often (No)
But this is how I really feel (Check it)

I keep fallin' in love more and more every day
I keep fallin' in love, fuckin' with you in this way
Guess that's the bottom line, ain't nothin' more I can say
I keep fallin' in love, fallin' in love
(Fallin', fallin', fallin', fallin', yeah, ooh)
