

Saturday Night

Toni Braxton

You know I love you but my loving is so terrifying
Timing really is a bitch
Who'da thought that stars that were so perfectly aligned can Double, change and fall and switch?

And I don't wanna leave
But if I have to make my way
You are everything
But I don't think I can stay

All alone on a Saturday night in a city screaming loud outside
And you know what I wanna do
I know you're wrong for me
But I don't care, 'cause I just wanna do
Bad things to you tonight (Ooh, ooh)
Tonight (Ooh, ooh, ooh)

You and I are like a crazy stupid raging fire
On the line and set to flames
You call me crazy, baby, but you're just a goddamn liar
But I swear it feels so safe
And I don't wanna to leave
But if I have to make my way
You are everything
But I don't think I can stay

All alone on a Saturday night in a city screaming loud outside
And you know what I wanna do
I know you're wrong for me
But I don't care, 'cause I just wanna do
Bad things to you tonight (Ooh, ooh)
Tonight (Ooh, ooh)

I scream I hate you, you scream you hate
But I love, but I love you, hey
And like we're 17 again, we know this love will never end
But I can't go on

Alone on a Saturday night in a city screaming loud outside
And you know what I wanna do
I know you're wrong for me
But I don't care, 'cause I just wanna do
Bad things to you tonight
Yeah, yeah, oh, tonight
Oh, oh, oh, oh tonight
Yeah, damn it's Saturday night
