

Such Bad Handling

Toro y Moi

You know there's that distance
That you took from me
There has to be a reason
A time change given

I will never understand
Why'd you have these theories
Take it from my side
Are you proving anything

Your thinking slanted
Your thinking slanted

That's my life, (Kiss me)
Hanging from a tendon (Why don't you try to save me?)
You still can't get enough
You don't know (Reach out to me)
What you've taken

That's my life,
Hanging from a tendon (Why don't you try to save me)
Why don't you try
You could reach out (You mean nothing to me)
And show your hands (You mean nothing to me)

Yeah you've got a brainchild in your arms
But it's so drained and worn out from bad handling

Yeah you've got a brainchild in you arms
But it's so drained and worn out from bad handling

Why don't you try and save me
(Yeah you've got a brainchild in your arms)
Why Don't you try and save me

Why don't you try and save me
(But it's so drained and worn out)
Why don't you try and save me

Why don't you try and save me
(But it's so drained and worn out)
Why don't you try and save me

Why don't you try and save me
(But it's so drained and worn out)
Why don't you try and save me
