

Lenny Johnson

Transatlantic

Seems things turned out a little rough on good old
Lenny Johnson
He didn't qualify to put his feet up on the moon
He never won a medal and he run no fancy mansion
He's been a mess and always outside looking in

The world is bigger than a cake, said good old Lenny
Johnson
He never jumped up on a bus and went away
The girls all seem to look right through the poor old
Lenny Johnson
He wasn't handsome and his mind just went astray

There's no promotion waiting for a man like Lenny
Johnson
No invitation wedding in his mailbox anytime
His life is just a kill of time without a real sensation
One of those lonely people, silently in line

The world is bigger than a cake said good old Lenny
Johnson
He never jumped up on a bus and went away
The girls all seem to look right through the poor old
Lenny Johnson
He wasn't handsome and his mind just went astray

The world is bigger than a cake said good old Lenny
Johnson
He never jumped up on a bus and went away
The world is bigger than my heart said good old Lenny
Johnson
He never jumped up on a bus and went away
The girls all seem to look right through all that is
Lenny Johnson
He wasn't handsome and his mind just went astray

Nothing's waiting for Johnson's Lenny
He's just a boy, like so many
Others, sisters and brothers, mothers and fathers

Nothing's waiting for Johnson's Lenny
He's just a boy, like so many
Others, sisters and brothers, mothers and fathers

After all, maybe Lenny went around the world
On a bus or a plane
Never said goodbye
