

Shine

Transatlantic

Tuesday, you're okay
But can't you feel there's something there?
Waiting like a silent prayer
'Cause this is our fading away
And there's nothing we can do
Little we can hold on to
But to let our lonely light come through

And so we shine while this moment slips away from us
Shine while the skies are turning gray
And so we shine like there's nothing they can take from us
We want no one left behind
While we shine, shine, shine, oh, yeah
Shine, shine, shine now

The spotlight's on you
But can't you feel there's something more?
Brighten just beyond the door
Hey
If the Light of the World lives in you,
then no matter where you go,
you can let the darkness know there's a little light left in your soul

And so we shine while this moment slips away from us
Shine while the skies are turning gray
And so we shine like there's nothing they can take from us
This love leaves none behind
While we shine, shine, shine, oh, yeah
Shine, shine, shine, oh, yeah, ha
Shine, shine, shine, oh, yeah
Shine, shine, shine, oh

Two miles away
None safe to say
Souls fly away somehow
And day after day,
so many fall away
So let's shine the way now

And so we shine while this moment slips away from us
Shine while the skies are turning gray
And so we shine 'cause there's nothing they can take from us
This love leaves none behind
When we shine, shine, shine, oh, yeah
Shine, shine, shine, oh, yeah
Shine, shine, shine, oh, yeah
Shine, shine, shine

Watch 'em shine
Watch 'em shine for you

Shine, shine, shine
The Dreamer and the Healer
Wait for you
They wait for you
The Dreamer and the Healer

Wait for you
They wait for you
