

Falling For A Goldmine

Transvision Vamp

As the nighttime falls
I can see it all
Oh there's flowers growing
On the Berlin Wall
As the moon shines down
On the broken town
Her memories fall
Like gold dust to the ground
Marlene, Marlene
Your eyes sparkle while your diamonds shine
Marlene, Marlene
Your eyes sparkle while your diamonds shine
And I think I'm falling for a goldmine
She takes my hand
Shows me her plan
It's a ladder stretching
To another land
And in her eyes
The teardrops dry
As the stars all fall
Like jewels from the sky
Marlene, Marlene
Your eyes sparkle while your diamonds shine
Marlene, Marlene
Your eyes sparkle while your diamonds shine
And I think I'm falling for a goldmine
Now as the sun comes round
On this broken town
There are flowers lying
Dead on the ground
Marlene, Marlene
Your eyes sparkle while your diamonds shine
Marlene, Marlene
Your eyes sparkle while your diamonds shine
And I think I'm falling for a goldmine
And I think I'm falling for a goldmine
And I think I'm falling for a goldmine
And I think I'm falling for a goldmine
For a goldmine
For a goldmine
