

Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

Travis Tritt

Now girl, I see you in my dreams
It happens every day and night now
You got me going to extremes
Don't seem to care what's wrong or right now

I'll make ya mine someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway

You say I'm really not your kind
I know I look a little rough now
If I could give you everything, girl
Would it ever be enough now

I'll make you mine someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway

It makes me wonder what's goin' on, baby
When the night rolls in
It something happens that feels so strong
And I just can't pretend, oh yeah

Oh, don't you wonder what's, goin' on, baby
When the night rolls in
It something happens that feels so strong and
And it will happen again so, you can turn and walk away

But I know you would regret it
If I ever had my way, yeah
Do you think you could forget it

It's gonna happen someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway

I wanna have you someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway

I'll make you mine someday
Somehow, somewhere, someway, ooh, yeah
