

Invisible

Trey Anastasio

Last time, when you were waiting for me.
I tried, to tell you all we had
Was a wrapped up scene like a new that it would
It all seems thin but it sure feels good.
Cause it's the best I've seen when you fall down good
Sink in the water but you're walking on wood.

This time, what are you waiting for
Is it your time, to walk away because
The laws unseen, levels all good
It hurdles all down like another time would Cause it's the best I've seen when a fall down should
Sink in the water but you're walking on wood.

Last I've seen, walking on wood,
Downstream drifting like a long time should.
But now we're invisible so all that's good.

Laws unseen, the levels all good
Downstream drifting like a long time should.
But now we're invisible so all that's good.

Next time, and I could wait forever.
Old Times, because I thought I'd never Wrap that scene like I knew that I should
It all seemed thin but it sure felt good.
Cause it's the best I've seen when you fall down good
Sink in the water but you're walkin on wood

Last time, Walkin on wood
Now we're invisible and all that's good
