Mama I wanna thank you

For sharing your blessings upon me

Taking time to understand the lady I wanna be

Yes mama
Mama I wanna thank you
For sharing your blessings upon me
Taking time to understand the lady I wanna be

This cold world had me num the pain like novacaine Till mama sat me down unfold the gate Showed me the straight path through the narrow lane Sunshine after rain the joy of pain Mama you raised a good girl dont worry You used to say take it slow trina dont hurry Use to tuck me in with the bedtime story Now I grown up and you still there for me My shoulder to lean on You kept my dreams goin I owe it all to you me now I got the green flowing And im gon always be yo baby And I cant never repay you for all the things that you gave me You raised me to be a lady And you scoot me to the game so them niggas couldnt play me You was more than a mother you was a friend The greatest love of all comes from within I know ill never kknow love like this again And beneath my wings you was the wind I love you like none other Cause you can only live your whole life but only get one mother

Being there for me through the thick and thin More than a mother your my best friend Look within and take yo place

Sometimes I wanna run to ya Through the ups and downs I know I can still come to ya I think bout the things I done to ya But through all the drama I know I'm still number one to ya Uh, look at how far you brought me All the things you have taught me Money couldnt bought me You never wanted us to make the same mistakes When the game got high and they raised the stakes You was still in my corner to press the brace Till I'm ready in yo arms you kept me safe Through the thick and thin im gon be there for ya I say a prayer for ya Lord knows I care for ya Through hard times we got strong or mother to daughter When I was weak you was my bridge over trouble water Can't nobody replace you I'm forever faithful For you mama im grateful Your baby girl is a reflection of you I thank the lord up above cause he blessed me with you, uh I love you like none other

Cause you can live your whole life but you can only get one mother

(yes mama)
mama I wanna thank you
For sharing your blessings upon me (oh mama)
Taking time to understand
The lady I wanna be (keep reapeting till fades out)
