Trippie Redd

I can't eat, I can't sleep, oh
I can't think, I can't breathe, oh
I can't see, I can't be with you, yeah
I don't know where to go from here
I know you told me not to come here
But I know you'll find sometime, some year, for me

Try to fight my love, shawty
You ain't hard enough, shawty
You ain't know enough, shawty
Oh, told you it was love, shawty
Put my love above, shawty
I know what it was, shawty
Shawty, there
Shawty, right there
Shawty, right there
Shawty
Where you gon' go?
Where you gon' go?
Where you gonna go, girl?
Yeah

I can't eat, I can't sleep, oh
I can't think, I can't breathe, oh
I can't see, I can't be with you, yeah
I don't know where to go from here
I know you told me not to come here
But I know you'll find sometime, some year, for me

It's been awhile now
De ja vu, like I'm comin' down the aisle
Eyes on you, I hear you loud and clear
Like I'm sorting through a crowd
Heard what you did, won't you say it ain't so
'Cause you lose yourself when you touch and roll
I guess that's why you never think to come home
But by the time you change your mind, I'll be gone
'Cause you should know by now, that I

I can't eat, I can't sleep, oh
I can't think, I can't breathe, oh
I can't see, I can't be with you, yeah
I don't know where to go from here
I know you told me not to come here
But I know you'll find sometime, some year, for me

Try to fight my love, shawty
You ain't hard enough, shawty
You ain't know enough, shawty
Oh, told you it was love, shawty
Put my love above, shawty
I know what it was, shawty
Shawty, right there
Shawty, right there
Shawty, right there
Shawty
Where you gon' go?

Where you gon' go?
Where you gonna go, girl?
