

Say Anything

Tristan Prettyman

If I could say anything, anything what would it be?
A good question for our destined reality
I would tell you that I love you
Even when it didn't show.
I would tell you that I love you, baby,
By now I hope you know.

If you could go anywhere, anywhere what would you see?
Take a step in any direction, it's make believe
If your mind is always moving
It's hard to get your heart up off the ground
Yeah, your mind was always moving
But your thoughts never made a sound

And we won't break if we let go.
You and I already know
We were bound to be set free eventually.
So, here we are now
You can say anything

If I could have it go any way, any way it'd go like this
Take it back to a couple years yesterday to our first kiss
In that moment I loved you,
This isn't how I ever saw it going down.
In that moment I loved you,
I wish I knew then what I know now.

We won't break if we let go.
You and I already know
We were bound to be set free eventually.
So, here we are now
You can say anything
You can say anything

You should you listen to your heart
(you should listen to you your heart)
It's gonna tell you what you need
(it's gonna tell you what you need)
Take care of yourself
(take care of yourself)
And don't you worry about me
(don't you worry about me)

You should you listen to your heart
(you should listen to you your heart)
It's gonna tell you what you need
(it's gonna tell you what you need)
Take care of yourself
(take care of yourself)
And don't you worry about me
(don't you worry about me)

We won't break if we let go.
You and I already know
We were bound to be set free eventually.
Well, here we are now
You can say anything

Always say anything
