

Who We Are

Tristan Prettyman

I would grant all your wishes
If you promised me a thousand kisses
I will never, love another, like you So give me all your secrets your fear and doubts, honey you don't need them I will never, find another, like you And the airs getting thin
Where the wings meet the wind
We see it, we can feel it and we know this I believe in something more all the days that came before led us right to where we are right to where we are it's all written in the stars we've already come so far and we can't change who we are ah ah who we are ohhhhhhhh who we are
ohhhhhhhh who we are
I don't have all the answers but right now is all the matters
I could never, love another, like I loved you And we don't have to understand fate always has the upper hand and fate choose me and you
