

The Truth

Tub Ring

My take of a complete picture
Has never been that long
I've done it right for so many years
Why is it suddenly wrong

So glad you said so, so diplomatic
Glad you hinted at your views

You're pouring everything into
A chance you could be right
When your eggs have broken
There's a footnote to your plight

Your tone has never worked for me
And your words are elementary
But I'm suddenly faced with the things I erase
And it's harder each time to go along this way

There is no lesson here and nothings ever clear
So we'll do as we planned and we'll go hand and hand
But the truth is a thing that I just can't say

And I think in metaphors
And do all I can
If I gave you a brief description
Then would you understand

So glad you said so, so diplomatic
Glad you hinted to your views

You've taken what you can
While we all heard you complain
And you bear no fault in this
From the memories you retain

Your tone has never worked for me
And your words are elementary
But I'm suddenly faced with the things I erase
And it's harder each time to go along this way

There is no lesson here and nothings ever clear
So we'll do as we planned and we'll go hand and hand
But the truth is a thing that I just can't say

There is no lesson here and nothings ever clear
So we'll do as we planned and we'll go hand and hand
But the truth is a thing that I just can't say