

So much inspired in the course of several years I've grown to question all I am it's time to move along this path without our peers one day the truth will come to them when we leave behind this land just be sure to take my hand across the way and come with me when we shed our binds and leave our vessels far behind we'll find a way and we'll be free Mr. Applewhite your web design was baffling and your vehicle for traveling lost it's way if you can hear my cries the body works until it dies if you return we'll try another day. it's such a joy to have us all together here this trust will help us all move on I sense excitement cause the time is drawing near transcend this ground we live upon Mr. Applewhite your rhetoric was tired and your vehicle expired long ago if you can hear my cries then send a message through the skies we'll benefit from hearing what you know your vehicle was splendid your vehicle ended your vehicle has served you well.
