

Breaking My Heart

Twila Paris

There's an ache in my heart
I've been away
We've been apart
I've been trying to hide
Swallowed in fear
Covered in pride
Truth analyzed
Rebel disguised in smiles

Breaking my heart
You've been breaking my heart again
Making me start again
Breaking my heart

I feel so insecure
Tender and weak
Scared and unsure
I've been peeled to the core
My head is tired
My heart is sore
Truth emphasized
I have despised Your love

Breaking my heart
You've been breaking my heart again
Making me start again
Breaking my heart

I needed to fall
I needed to lose it all
I needed to cry
I needed to wonder why

Breaking my heart
You've been breaking my heart again
Making me start again
Breaking my heart

Breaking my heart
You've been breaking my heart again
Making me start again
Breaking my heart
