

See Me Fight

Two Steps from Hell

I start leaving
I'm not breathing tonight
This is goodbye
And the night still shining
Words can't find the one light
Just hold me tight

You ran away and I'm wondering why
It's like you and I had kinda fell from the sky
You didn't say that you made me alive
Baby I don't wanna say goodbye
Nowhere to hide and no heart left to cry
Tell me it looks just the same in your eyes
I am the rain, not the fire tonight
Hoping you see me fight

When did we go wrong?
Did we call it quits?
What did we miss?
Baby I could search our lifetime never to find Someone like your kind

You ran away and I'm wondering why
It's like you and I had kinda fell from the sky
You didn't say that you made me alive
Baby I don't wanna say goodbye
Nowhere to hide and no heart left to cry
Tell me it looks just the same in your eyes
I am the rain, not the fire tonight
Hoping you see me fight
