

Love Will Find a Way

Tygers of Pan Tang

3 o' clock in the morning I'll pack my bags and go
No one around in the city I'll face the day on my own
The first light of day surrounded by my regrets
How can I deal with this pain life's so cruel I guess

Said she'll understand me, but it was just a mess
I can't go on pretending, guess I'll never forget
Let me try to explain I cannot forget you
What kind of game we play?

Love will find a way
Love will find a way
A game of chance a twist of fate
Love will find a way

Endless days and nights still waiting for your call
I have to realise time ain't going back for sure

Too late to say I'm sorry, am I the one to blame
But you keep on pretending how would I ever change
Let me try to explain I will always be near you
This is the game we play?
