

Only The Brave

Tygers of Pan Tang

There's the weak, then there's the strong
Gotta find out just where you belong
Is it in heaven or is it in hell
The time it takes to find out you're already under the spell

And nothing they do or say - changes the way you feel
Nothing they do or say - changes the way, changes the way

Living on the edge - between the dark and the light
Craving for revenge - it's a fight to stay alive
Living on the edge - nothing's black or white
Only, only... Only the brave survive

If there's a chance then it's something take
Don't stand in one place for too long, leave nothing to fate
The world turns so fast it could leave you behind
The longer you sleep the deeper you fall and stumble inside your mind
And there's no escape and you're on your own
The anguish the pain you're going insane no inside there's nothing no

Nothing they do or say - changes the way you feel
Nothing they do or say - changes the way, changes the way

Living on the edge - between the dark and the light
Craving for revenge - it's a fight to stay alive
Living on the edge - nothing's black or white
Only, only... Only the brave survive

There's the weak, then there's the strong
Gotta find out just where you belong
Is it in heaven or is it in hell
The time it takes to find out you're already under the spell

Only, only the brave
Only the brave
Only the brave survive
