

Hard To Forget

Tyler Blackburn

I saw you yesterday and the look upon your face
Said all you needed to say
With your broken smile
You were shy like a child
Wanting to hold you all the while

If we take that jump, and close our eyes
We'll either fall or we'll fly

It's hard to forget all that you said
And easy to come undone
It's hard to forget
Tears that we shed
Nowhere left to run
I can learn to forgive, it's just hard to forget

My emotions got to me
Blindness all I couldn't see
Now I feel anything but grief
Don't blame me cuz I'm down
When you flipped it all around
We can sneak but I don't hear a sound

If we take that jump, and close our eyes
We'll either fall or we'll fly

It's hard to forget all that you said
And easy to come undone
It's hard to forget
Tears that we shed
I can learn to forgive, it's just hard to forget

I'm lost without you
(I needed you)
I'm so alone
(I trusted you)
Don't know what I have without you now
(I needed you)
I'm lost without you
I'm so alone
(Start to jump in)
I'm lost without you
(I search for songs without you)
I'm so alone

It's hard to forget
How much I cared
In time I close my eyes
It's hard to forget
All that we shared
In time I know we could try
To learn to forgive
When it's so hard to forget

It's hard
Hard to forget

So hard
Hard to forget
To learn to forgive
