

Falling In Love With My Best Friend

Tyler Ward

You've got a way of changing my mind every time
I'm losing my way when wrong seems so right
And I just might play out in my head
Lost dreams and regrets but I'll be okay 'cause you've got a way

Now we're telling jokes and you're wearing my sweater
Late night laughing until we cry on the living room floor
Morning coffee at the cafe
Have to leave but would you please stay?
'Cause I've been, I've been, I've been
Falling in love with my best friend
Falling in love with my best friend

If I had to be anywhere with anybody
You can believe I'd choose you
I told you all my secrets
And you showed me you could keep 'em (you kept 'em, now)

Now we're telling jokes and you're wearing my sweater
Late night laughing until we cry on the living room floor
Morning coffee at the cafe
Have to leave but would you please stay?
'Cause I've been, I've been, I've been
Falling in love with my best friend
(This is something, falling in love with my best friend)
Falling in love with my best friend
(Loving, loving, falling in love with my best friend)

If I had to be anywhere with anybody
You can believe I'd choose you

And now we're telling jokes on the back of my scooter
We've been talking about our love since a little past 4 AM
So morning coffee at the cafe
Morning coffee at the cafe
Have to leave but would you please stay?
'Cause I've been, I've been, I've been
Falling in love with my best friend
(This is something, falling in love with my best friend)
Falling in love with my best friend
(Loving, loving, falling in love with my best friend)

If I had to be anywhere with anybody
You can believe I'd choose you
