

How To Lose a Girl

Tyler Ward

I heard
Every single word
That she said
But honestly I wasn't listenin'
Was she fightin' with her mom?
Or with her best friend?
I was too busy in my own head
Worryin' all about myself

Oh, I, should've known
Can't hear the truth
When you choose
To be throwin' stones
You make silence feel like home
You're still with her
But she feels alone
If you wanna know

How to lose a girl
That was your whole world
All you gotta do is just
Love your girl
Just like I loved her

If you wanna lose a girl
Just love her, just love her like I did
Lose a girl
Just love her, just love her like I did
Lose a girl
Just love her, just love her like I did
Lose a girl
Just love her, just love her like I did

Love her like I did

Now wait
Swear it ain't
Complicated
If you just break it down
Never be around
Never take accountability
And judge her sensitivity
Now
I should've known
You can't hear the truth
When you choose
To be throwing stones
If you wanna know

How to lose a girl
That was your whole world

If you wanna lose a girl

Lose a girl
Just love her, just love her like I did
Lose a girl
Just love her, just love her like I did
Lose a girl
Just love her, just love her like I did
