

Pennybags

Tyler Ward

You know Chuck Norris never gonna stop me
I make his round house kicks look sloppy I'm the terabyte added to the Mac computer and you're stuck in the days of a 3.5 floppy and I swing it like a numb-chuck all the game that you brought is bankin' on some dumb luck
I'm stacked, Miami Heat Trio
You're a sinking' ship, Leo Deo

Open up the car door when you see me in the lamborghini yellow tie, i'm looking fly, hotter than a string bikini call me quarterback when i'm tossing' keys, Eli Manning Not a Roethlisberger cause I keep it at a squeaky clean Steppin and a popin and i'm keeping it a rocking cause i'm feeling like an ice cream on a sunday
And I know they'll never stop me I got pennies in my stocking cause I'm sicker and i'm calling in on monday

Everybody's hoppin like the Energizer bunny when you're feelin' Thomas Edison's electrifying shock Now we bounce bounce up and down north and south we be movin' so fast they be turning back the clock now pose, take a picture hang it in your house under mom's light fixture D Ward coming like a twister to your tongue
I make the melody go dum ditty dum

I fold you up while you callin' me insane throw you around like a paper airplane your taste ain't sweet like my fresh lemonade Cause Mr. Pennybags, he ain't never gonna pay you pass you up, collect two bills leave you back in the Colorado foot hills trekking through the club in my full suspension did you say my name?
memory retention
