

Shame On You Now

Tyler Ward

If you didn't know the words when you walked in
Shame on you now.
If you didn't know the words when you walked in
Shame on you now.

(Alright, Youtube)

She goes Tyler, I just banged my head on the bathroom door by complete accident, it hurt.
I wanna see your closet, is it full of black T-shirts?
I just can't believe, the love love love is taking over me hehe
It's very interesting to see your neighbors attack you
I thought that Brent looked familiar then I was like "Wait, I bought a sweatshirt from him"
Rotate!
Insanity work outs, dentist and some reruns of House
Oh yeah that sounds pretty dope, Mrs. future Tyler Ward
There's a monkey on the couch
Morning voice I like that
Your morning voice UGH
Morning voice I like that
Your morning voice UGH

If you didn't know the words when you walked in
Shame on you now.
If you didn't know the words when you walked in
Shame on you now.

(Ok, Facebook)

Roses are red
my name is Dave
This poem makes no sense
Microwave
I close my eyes, take a deep breath and I fly away to Neptune
When life gives you lemons, make apple juice
From coast to coast
Bazinga baby. Gotta say I love you, I love you
Hi mom.
They say that purple has no rhyming word but the first thing I thought was dimple
And life is beautiful
It's gonna be a brother vs brother Super Bowl
I wish that everybody was blind so everyone could stop judging me by the sight
And have a deep look inside let your heart be your eyes
And do what's right, do what's right.

If you didn't know the words when you walked in
Shame on you now.
If you didn't know the words when you walked in
Shame on you now.
