It was a perfect dream
A lovely wonder scene
It took me over and I surrendered

I felt the harmony Was like a symphony Drifting on a broken cloud

Then I wandered - nothing conquered
I had my faith - lost in time - lost in memory

I was lost in pain Free from shame Beauty has a consequence

Now I realised
It was cold as ice
Staring at a frozen mirror

Now the curtains closed - like a dying rose No more fantasy for me For me

Secrets in paradise Why you let me go Why you didn't show

Secrets in paradise
Why you let me go
Why you didn't show
Why you left me all alone

Now I feel the loneliness My bleeding heart is aching less What a meaning - what a feeling

Secrets in paradise Why you let me go Why you didn't show

Secrets in paradise
Why you let me go
Why you didn't show
Why you left me all alone

No more secrets in paradise
