Heaven knows that you're an evil child, Drive me crazy, drive me wild Get home from work I don't feel alright Go in your bedroom you just want to fight Moving in, moving out, baby you move my mind about Don't give me no reasons don't give me no lies Come to take you home from school you've broken all the rules All I need is a bit of your love All I want is to hold you tight All I need is a part of you...
