

Hell Ain't Hard to Find

Ugly Kid Joe

I was looking for a new solution
Stumbled upon a revolution
Hell ain't hard to find
Over my head and crossed the line

I was looking for a complication
Stumbled upon a revelation
Hell ain't hard to find
Over my head and crossed the line again

Sold my soul to the other side
I'm a one man rollercoaster ride
I'm an empty soul already died
On my way to the other side again

I was looking for a new confusion
Stumbled upon a revolution
Hell ain't hard to find
Over my head and crossed the line

I was looking for a conversation
Stumbled upon a revelation
Hell ain't hard to find
Over my head and crossed the line again

Sold my soul to the other side
I'm a one man rollercoaster ride
I'm an empty soul already died
On my way to the other side again

Give me water
Watch me drown
Lay my body under the ground
Let my bones rest in peace
Let the darkness come cover me
As I leave, forget my name
It won't matter
It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same

I was looking for a new solution
Stumbled upon a revolution
Hell ain't hard to find
Over my head and crossed the line

I was looking for a complication
Stumbled upon a revelation
Hell ain't hard to find
Over my head and crossed the line again

Sold my soul to the other side
I'm a one man rollercoaster ride
I'm an empty soul already died
On my way to the other side again
