

Pneumonia

Underoath

You could say I'm lost
Standing 3000 feet below
I couldn't stay anymore
The devil's calling and I must go

I feel like I'm drowning
Like I'll never get out alive
I feel you're a mountain
I kill myself to climb

It could tear me apart
I gotta see what's on the other side
I know it breaks your heart
The devil's calling and I must go

I feel like I'm drowning
Like I'll never get out alive
I feel you're a mountain
I kill myself to climb

I am a fucking nightmare
I keep myself awake
No one can even help me
Every prayer is fake

You can say I'm lost
You can say I'm lost

Every bloodline has its own start
Every bloodline has its own start

God

Dig till there's nothing
I'll keep on climbing
Until I'm skin and bones
Fade into new light
Blur back to old lives
Release me from all fear

As I drift to the brightest black
Weightless
Lifeless
Endless
No way back
