

Rapture

Underoath

Old familiar face, that bitter taste
She's been hanging around too long
That crooked tongue, so pale, so young
Makes me warm

Take me to the darkness, hang me out to dry
Tangled in your legs, in the webs of your lies
Lead me to the rapture, set my body free
Higher than the flames, set blaze inside of me, whoa
There's no turning back, there's no coming down
I'm forever lost, there's no coming down

Oh, I'm skin and bones, pale as a ghost
I know that I should be moving on
But in your embrace, you know I'll never change
Hopeless, I am chained down on my knees

Take me to the darkness, hang me out to dry

Tangled in your legs, in the webs of your lies
Lead me to the rapture, set my body free
Higher than the flames, set blaze inside of me, whoa
There's no turning back, there's no coming down
I'm forever lost, there's no coming down

When you call my name, I'm never far away
When you call my name, I know there's no escape

Take me to the darkness, hang me out to dry
Tangled in your legs, in the webs of your lies
Lead me to the rapture, set my body free
Higher than the flames, set blaze inside of me, whoa
There's no turning back, there's no coming down
I'm forever lost, there's no coming down
