

We're All Gonna Die

Underoath

Pull me apart scatter the pieces
My lips are moving, but I'm speechless
Surround me
Lay your hands on me

You could just throw me away
I'm not good enough to be saved
Inside of your broken halo there's a secret you can't keep

Hey, we're all gonna die, what difference does it make?
Don't pray for me and my friends
I think you're fucking fake
Let's be honest, I'm heartless, I could care less
Hey, we're all gonna die, don't pretend to be alive

You're not alive

Don't need to teach me to breathe
Don't got a cure, don't got anything
Inside your cup
Fill up with lies, choke on the words you fed me

Hey, we're all gonna die, what difference does it make?
Don't pray for me and my friends
I think you're fucking fake
Let's be honest, I'm heartless, I could care less
Hey, we're all gonna die, don't pretend to be alive

Every word you said
Is drowning in your head
I hope that you can swim

Is this heaven, is this hell, what's the difference, I can't tell
Is this heaven, is this hell, what's the difference, I can't tell
What's the difference, I can't tell
What's the difference?

Hey, we're all gonna die, what difference does it make?
Don't pray for me and my friends
I think you're fucking fake
Let's be honest, I'm heartless, I could care less
Hey, we're all gonna die, don't pretend to be alive

Is this heaven, is this hell, what's the difference, I can't tell
Is this heaven, is this hell, what's the difference?
