

Nothing's free in this world, motherfucker

This life is not what you see on your screen
Your 5x3 reality
Before you double-tap on what you wish you could be Understand it might not be what you think

You want it so bad
But you don't know what it means
There's no turning back
Once you're in too deep

Can you handle it?
Here's the cold-hearted truth
Only craving the money, the power, the fame
Will never satisfy you

This life is not just the views from the top
Because the higher your head gets, the faster you'll drop

Can you handle it?
Here's the cold-hearted truth
Only craving the money, the power, the fame
Will never satisfy you

Nothing's free in this world, motherfucker
5x3 reality

You want it so bad
But you don't know what it means
There's no turning back
Once you're in too deep

Can you handle it?
Here's the cold-hearted truth
Only craving the money, the power, the fame
Will never satisfy you

Can you handle it?
Here's the cold-hearted truth
Only craving the money, the power, the fame
Will never satisfy you
