

Reinventing Hatred

Upon a Burning Body

We walk amongst demons
Hell on earth we welcome the purge

Save our sinful lives
Wash and purify
Pull the hell from inside lost souls
Pain suffering we lost control

Point your finger in every direction
False mirrors hide your reflection

Reinventing hatred
A new heartless nation
Reinventing hatred

The darkened mind, the callus heart
A parasitic will enough to make you feel
Chaos in the abyss of ignorance
Can we tame the roar of dissonance

The line has been drawn
Who's side are you on when we are

Reinventing hatred
A new heartless nation
Reinventing hatred

Swinging from the hangman's knot
Are you the martyr or the one who rots

The line has been drawn
Who's side are you on when we are

Reinventing hatred
A new heartless nation
Reinventing hatred
Reinventing hatred
A new heartless nation
Reinventing hatred
