

What Kind Of God

Uriah Heep

B

I rode to my homeland

A

and carried the memory over the valley below

and the heart of a nation

the war cry was blazing

A

and the loss of my brothers and sons

B

were all in the name of civilisation

E

G

E

The empty moon saw I was leaving

E

E

with pride and hope in my heart

E

A

the mountains talk of faraway dreaming

B

So came the invasion

A

across from a faraway place into the new world

B

with guns and new order

they gave us religion

A

then took away all of our rights and forced

B

us to live behind their new border

E

The four winds blow and bring a new vision

E

where children laugh without fear

E

the land will speak and people will listen

A

But yesterday my life was fading

A

with every reason to die

D

ten miles to the north

A

E

as I rode my red horse in the dying sun

A

and then when I saw the white soldiers

A

one hundred or more in a line

kill for the land

A

saying their law will stand

Am

G

what kind of God do they see?

A

What kind of god can this be?
