

Into Oblivion

Vader

The gates were open in time before the time
For eons ruled by all forms of life
Creatures, beings, matrix of the matter
So odious, degenerated like a plague
Those mutants
Cosmic trigger, a fortuity in eternity
Illusion of divinity and superiority
Destiny programmed before it all begun
Now be gone
Thrown into limbo of obscurity

Into oblivion
Into oblivion

All gods with their temples
All men with their history
All myths with their purity
Time is irrelevant
Forever

Dreams of immortality and life eternal
Legends of holiness and salvation
Names, secrets, imagination
Like tears in the rain will disappear

Into oblivion
Into oblivion

It's time to die
