

Tequila Sunrise

Viza

I knew Maria for two months and now she waves goodbye.
I hurt Maria too much.
I hate to see you cry.

Shot tequila, took enough tequila, now you walk away with a heart of stone.
Don't you worry! I won't worry. I'm a one-track mind on a long dirt road.
Shot tequila, took enough tequila when I walk away your make up runs.
Don't you worry! I won't worry. I'm almost there alone.

I'll see Maria someday with a man twice her age.
I found Sofia this way. She's as soft and as wild as they say.

Shot tequila, took enough tequila, now you walk away with a heart of stone.
Don't you worry! I won't worry. I'm a one-track mind on a long dirt road.
Shot tequila, took enough tequila when I walk away your make up runs.
Don't you worry! I won't worry. I'm almost there alone. x3
