Song and Dance Man

Warrant

Last night I felt a wind of change blow through me It spoke of a million things before I die I should see Open up your eyes life is poetry in motion Ride the open sky

I'll be okay as soon as I'm on my way
I am a song and dance man
Yes, I am a song and dance man

Woman, oh woman sometimes I hear your voice Calls out to me makes my heart bleed Haven't got any choice I've opened up my eyes Life is poetry in motion, ride the open sky

I'll be okay as soon as I'm on my way
I am a song and dance man
Oh Lord, I am a song and dance man, yeah

Tokyo has rolling thunder Beautiful women and warm summer rain Honolulu has starts of fire Words alone cannot explain Open up your eyes Spread your wings and fly

Oh Lord, I am a song and dance man Oh Lord, I am a song and dance man That's what I am a song and dance man Life is paired between my and her song
