

Let Her Do the Walking

Waylon Jennings

There's a thang or two that a man can do
When it comes to loving women
If he holds his own he should be satisfied
Cause when it comes down to the end
Their ain't no way he's gonna win
Walking out and walking on a womans pride

You better let her do the walking

And do most of the talking
Just to listen close
Pretending you believe
Cause a womans scorn will find a way
Hound you till your dying day
You better let her do the walking when you leave

You better let her do the walking when you leave
