

Playing My Heart

We Are the Ocean

There is something about you,
That gets me every time,
And I can't explain but it's you,
That moves me deep inside.

There's a fire it burns here inside of me,
It burns inside for you,
Now there must be something wrong,
Cos' I can't hear you speak,
Stop playin' my heart,
Give me what I need,
What I need.

There's this feeling that I can't explain,
Can't explain,
Yeah, it's here,
Yeah, it's here it won't go away,
It won't go away,
When I try to understand,
To understand,
What's goin' on inside my head,
Inside my head.
There's a fire it burns here inside of me,
It burns inside for you,
Now there must be something wrong,
Cos' I can't hear you speak,
Stop playin' my heart,
Give me what I need,
What I need.

As you catch my eye as you float away,
The sudden sadness silence that I'm afraid,
As you catch my eye as you float away,
The sudden sadness silence that I'm afraid.

Now there must be something more,
Must be something more,
Cos' I can't hear you speak,
I can't hear you speak,
Stop playin' my heart,
Stop playin',
Stop playin',
Stop playin',
Give me what I need,
What I need.
